

BIOGRAPHY

Trevor J. Cobb
Banker

Trevor Cobb is a Vice President and Banker with J.P. Morgan Private Wealth Management in Seattle. He advises individuals, families and foundations throughout the Pacific Northwest on a variety of matters, including asset allocation and portfolio construction, traditional banking and liquidity alternatives, and estate planning opportunities and execution strategies.

Mr. Cobb has previously held positions in portfolio implementation at Russell Investments and Private Wealth Management at Goldman Sachs.

A graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, Trevor is a decorated veteran, having been awarded the Bronze Star Medal, the nation's fourth highest combat award.

He earned his M.B.A. from the Foster School of Business at the University of Washington, and has completed advanced course work at the Swiss Banking Institute in Zürich. A Seattle native, Trevor is active in the community and devotes his spare time serving as a member of the Employer's Advisory Board at the Foster School of Business and SOVREN Guild in support of Seattle Children's Hospital.